SHALL GOVERNMENT BONDS BE TAKED?

"We are now daily selling the four per cent bonds directly to the people upon the basis of a popular loan in sums as low as $20.
These bonds have become the savings banks of the people, a safe deposit for their surplus money, always available when needed, and deposited upon the honor of the nation, and therefore safe from loss. The most satisfactory feature of this loan is that it is being held in small sums by great numbers of our fellow citizens, and is distributed through nearly all the States in the Union. During the first twenty days of the present month our sales of four per cent. bonds amounted to $30,000,000, and I now have the confident assurance that during the present year they will exceed $100,000,000, and will pay off the 5-20 six per cent. bonds of the issue of 1862."

The above is from Secretary Sherman's great Toledo speech, and those who are howling for the destruction of the "bloated bondholders," should pause to reflect how the principal bondholders of the United States are. The Democrats and Green-backers recognize the principle of taxing the Government bonds. They are perfectly willing that public faith should be broken. They are willing and even anxious, that the United States Government shall be a dishonest one; that it shall not keep its word; and that every one who purchased bonds of the Government at a time when national life was in danger, on the promise that they should not be taxed, must be deceived. This cry for the taxation of bonds is part of the warfare by Democrats and Greenbackers against what they call "capital." They seek to annihilate capital, not stopping to think how the laboringman, the mechanic, or the manufacturer, can live without the aid furnished by capital. If the men who furnish the means to build mills and factories are crushed, who are to pay the workmen? This is a question which these reckless schemers do not consider. And when they clamor for the taxation of bonds, and denounce bloated bondholders, they do not consider who the holders of the bonds are. The testimony of Secretary Sherman shows into whose hands the new four per cent are going. They are being owned by persons of moderate means, by the thrifty and industrious mechanic and laboring man, and by widows who desire to put their little stock of surplus money where it will be absolutely safe and where it will draw interest. If the bonds were taxed, the four per cent could not be sold, and hence the larger part of the debt could not be funded at a low rate of interest. Sherman's policy of redeeming the six per cent bonds, and selling the four, will save to the country over 16 millions of dollars a year.

Again the Democrats and the Green-backers are crying for a lower rate of interest. The public credit, never in the history of the Government, stood so high abroad as it does now. The Government never paid so low a rate of interest. Under the Democratic administration of Buchanan and Pierce, the United States was compelled to pay over 12 per cent, so low had our credit become by Democratic corruption and misrule.
Now the bonds are taken up readily at four per cent. This shows which party gives the nation a character at home and abroad.

THE TRADE DOLLAR.

It is an unfortunate thing that speculators and National banks refuse to take the trade dollar for more than ninety cents.
It starts a discussion in regard to the currency, and creates an hostility toward National banks, which should not exist at this time. Because Congress did a foolish act in destroying the legal tender quality of the trade dollar, is no sound reason why the banks should refuse to take them at par, when they receive the new dollar containing 7 1/2 grains less of silver than the trade, for 100 cents.
It is very evident that this game has been started by speculators who propose to make money out of the scheme by deluding the people. Don't be induced to sell them for 90 cents. Hold fast to them or pay to your merchants who will take them for one dollar. It will not be long before their legal tender quality will be restored.
There are some twenty-four millions of trade dollars in circulation. They were demonetized on the 22d of July, 1876, and since then their currency has been stopped by the treasury.
There is no doubt that their legal tender quality will be restored by the next Congress as the sentiment of the people and common sense and justice demand it.

When the Democrats see that the speculation in the trade dollars is an outrage and is becoming unpopular, they charge the consequences to the Republicans. The people must remember that a Democratic House of Representatives first sought to demonetize the trade dollar. On the 10th of June, 1876,

THE PLAQUE.

Fearful Increase of Fatal Cases—The Weather Favorable for a Rapid Spread.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 1.—New cases reported to-day, 104; deaths from yellow fever, 81. Among the deaths are Captain J. H. Miller; W. W. White, clerk at the Postoffice Hotel; E. H. Manford, of the Howard Association; George H. Holst, under-taker; Sergeant William McElroy, Signal service officer; Sister Bernadine, N. B.
Holt, C. H. Plischke, Paul Cicella and wife, and Han. A. T. Lacey.

Among the new cases are Dr. Wm. H.
Hodges and Dr. D. Lasqui. N. D. Menken is convalescing.

The undertakers are pressed to bury the dead, and at Elmwood cemetery to-day dozens of coffined dead were lying on top of the ground, waiting for interment, it being a difficult matter to procure even colored grave diggers.

Reports from along the line of the Memphis and Louisville Railway state there have been three deaths at Brownsville, and there are seventeen cases there. At Milan twenty cases and four deaths. At Wilkes one case, and at Mason one death.

GRENADE, Miss., Sept. 1.—Another telegraph operator came this morning.

About twelve new cases to-day, whites and blacks, and three deaths—Mrs. Dr.
Hughes, Bill Redding, and one negro man.

The weather is favorable to a spread.
Thermometer 88°; situation about the same. The doctors have worked hard, and the nurses are getting but little sleep.
Many houses are closed—little dead. In every other house there is one or more sick. The dead are not in the house more than three hours, and are often in the graveyard within one hour. No time to wash, or dress. Many are buried without coffins.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Sept. 1.—Eight physicians report ninety-eight new cases and twenty-five interments to-day. Among the new cases are Drs. Whitehead and Birchett, George Barn, Southern Express agent, and W. L. Trowbridge, acting Mayor.

Further telegrams confirm reports about yellow fever at Greenville, Miss.
Twenty cases are reported.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 1.—New cases, 260; deaths, 88. The weather was cloudy and warm to-day, with a slight shower this afternoon.

Two hundred and fifty-three applications for relief were made to the Honorable New Orleans, Aug. 31.—Since noon today 23 deaths and 150 new cases have been reported, and since Friday noon 70 deaths and 450 cases. The total sick since the epidemic is 5,524, and the total deaths, 943.

VICKSBURG, Miss., August 31.—Yellow fever has appeared at Greenville, Mississippi. Two deaths are reported. The people are panic-stricken and flying from the city.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Sixty-five wounded soldiers from the Soldiers' Home in this city, have volunteered to go into the yellow fever districts to serve as nurses, watchmen, or in any other capacity, without other compensation than their expenses.

Their generous proposal has been telegraphed to Memphis and other cities, but none will be accepted except those who have had yellow fever.

CAUGHT.

Sharp Work of the Detectives—Incendiarists Arrested.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 31.—The methods employed by the detectives to smoke out the mystery of the burning of the property of J. J. Sutton, in Columbus, Wisconsin, on the night of March 27, was interesting.

The houses, barn, seven blooded horses, four cows, and the family carriage were destroyed, involving a loss of over $7,000.
The efforts of the detectives were followed for some time. Finally Messrs.

McDonald and Barry, of Milwaukee, came to the conclusion that the incendiarism was the result of the ill-feeling, growing out of several business transactions, and their suspicion fixed upon Julius Fox, proprietor of the Fox House at Columbus, Max Claudt, at that time barkeeper of the house, and Herman Greul, the hostler. Mr.
Barry spent a month working up the case, disguised as a tramp, and applied for and obtained a job on the United States Construction works on the Upper Mississippi. He worked off and on a couple of weeks. He became solid with Greul. His fellow-workman confessed to him the perpetration of an immense crime, and in turn obtained his admission of the part he took in the burning of the property. Together they were taken opposite Winona, handcuffed and brought to Portage City. On the testimony thus obtained from Greul, Fox was arrested in Columbus on Friday morning, while Claudt was nabbed at the St. Charles Hotel in this city very late this evening. All three were taken before Justice Barker, of Portage City, and held in $5,000 bail each.
Fox gave his bail and the others are in jail.

THE STATE FAIR.

Preparations and Entries for the Wisconsin State Fair.

MADISON, Aug. 30.—Entries to the State Fair are coming in rapidly, and Secretary Bryant says the show will be fully equal to any held by the society for several years.

President Hayes will be present Tuesday of Fair week, September 10. The display of cattle will be nearly one-third larger than last year, while the machinery department will be usually well filled. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad Company is building a depot for passengers and freight at the east gate of the Fair grounds, for use during the show. The Chicago & Northwestern railway will connect with it. The Northwestern Telegraph Company will establish an office on the grounds.

The Weekly State Journal entered upon its 40th volume last week. The first number was issued by W. W. Wyman, in 1839, and in 1847, the present proprietor, General David Atwood, became connected with the paper. The Journal has been a marked success ever since it came into the hands of General Atwood. Being published at the capital, it enjoys excellent facilities of first securing news regarding the State Government which gives it a prominence in all parts of the State. Aside from this, it is a good newspaper, and editorially is managed with unusual care and great discretion. The growth of the Journal office has been rapid and permanent.
It is now the largest printing establishment in the State without an exception. It has done the State printing for many years, and has the facilities for it more promptly, in a better manner, and cheaper than any other office in Wisconsin. Its law book work, of which it does a great deal, is not excelled by the products of any law book publishers in the East.

The Republicans of the Third District meet in Convention to-morrow to nominate a candidate for Congress. There is no doubt that Hazelton will be recommended. He ought to be and that without the least opposition. He is an able man, a safe man, and a credit to his district and an honor to the State.

A ONE-SIDED PAIR.

How a Smart Man from Ohio Settled a Congressional Contest.

From the Washington Star.

One of the characters who figured in Washington during the last session of Congress was Ike Hill, of Newark, Ohio. He floated here with the army of hungry Democrats seeking an office when the House of Representatives changed hands. Not getting on the "regular" pay-roll, he became a general utility man and offered his services to help keep statesmen straight, and hunt up absentees when the full Democratic vote was needed. He knew the haunt of every lively statesman and just where to find him night and day. When the Field-and-Scott contest was up in the House, Ike kept Mr. Springer from calling a vote on the case for nineteen days, because as Ike says, "I told Springer to hold off until I was sure of my men. I knew one vote would finish the business one way or the other, and it so proved, but how Ike cheated the Republicans can best be told in this way.
"You see," says Ike, "there are a few of making any bones of the matter; there were a good many Democrats who didn't care to vote for Dean because they didn't believe he was elected no how. Well, alter I had told Springer to hold off, ahead, that we were all right, one of our men, a d—d Dutchman named Eicholtz, representing a New York district started to go home. I went for him and caught him on the steps of the Capitol. Says I: 'Look here, there is to be a vote on the Field-Dean case today; we need all our votes.' He wouldn't come back; he was as obstinate as a mule.
Well, something had to be done, so I went to Van Vorhes, of Ohio, a good fellow whom I knew well, and I said: 'Look here, Van, Eicholtz is sick and wants a pair of pants. He's a first class fellow here. Ain't

A New Way to Pay Old Debts.

Washington Correspondence, Baltimore Sun.

A proposition has recently been made that the national debt can now be paid off by the imposition of an annual tax of $20 on "generals," $10 on "colonels," and $5 on "majors." There is no doubt of this.
The enormous revenue that would accrue from such a source would in a very short time wipe out the entire debt. After this it could be applied to the settlement of the labor problem, as the fund would be sufficient to make a handsome distribution per capita for the whole country. It is a wonder that General Butler and Mr. Kearney have not thought of this before. It would be of no use to impose a tax on any title below the rank of "major," for Captain Vance, the Appointment Clerk of the Treasury Department, says that so far as he discovers he is the only "captain" left, either of the Union or Confederate armies.
This is said, but in lieu of "captains" a tax might be paid on "judges." Even in the present dull times there are not less than two thousand "judges" in Washington alone, and the "generals" and "colonels" are simply countless. Many of them would doubtless find it difficult to pay the tax, but sooner than part with title the they would manage to squeeze it out.

Gasts from Living Forms.

Paris Correspondent Philadelphia Telegraph.

I was taken by a friend to see the wonderful plaster casts of living human beings which are among the curiosities of the Russian department. How the thing is done it is impossible to imagine, but there the two states are, recumbent female figures, undoubtedly taken from living women. One lies slightly turned upon her side, her lips parted in a smile, as though she was striving to suppress a laugh. The other, who has much the finer form of the two, lies face downward, her feet crossed, and her head pillowed on her folded arms, as though she had thrown herself down to sleep. The minutest details of the texture of the skin, nails, etc., are very perfectly reproduced, the "goose-flesh" wherever noticeable, and showing that the preparation used for those casts, the composition whereof is a secret, must be applied cold.
Then all the little indentations in the soles

THE KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The Address of Mayor Cavan of Indianapolis—A Remarkable Order—What it has done and what it is doing.

The Knights of Pythias Supreme Lodge of the World, held its annual session at Indianapolis last week. The address of welcome was delivered by Hon. John Cavan, Mayor of the city. It is an eloquent production and is worthy of being read by everybody.

This order of Knights, though yet young, has already an interesting history. Its rise, growth and progress is one of the most remarkable in the history of secret orders, and is, indeed, almost without a parallel. Though organized but fourteen years ago, it has already built its altars upon every State in the Union. New lodges are every day being organized all over the land, already numbering its members by tens of thousands with daily accessions. Not only is its past wonderful, but its future is full of signs of glorious promise.

I believe this order has a mission to perform, and that this mission is great and good; its members selected mostly from the young men of the nation, with many years of life before and rainbows of hope shining above them, and bringing to it the earnestness and enthusiasm of youth, and all of whom have passed through an ordeal of inquiry into their good character—a select body bound to be worthy and of good morals, and engaged in some honest calling, active members in society, and in sound health, selected from every pursuit in life—from the pulpit and the bar, the farmer, merchant and manufacturer, the skilled mechanic and the honest day laborer. We know no distinction and recognize no qualification but merit. It must be evident, then, that an organization thus composed, thus varied in its individuals and yet thus select in its qualifications, vast in numbers, and banded together in sworn loyalty for a good purpose, is indeed a power and an accomplishment, sending out its members in their daily walk into every phase and ramification of society, and brought into contact with every class of community, and thus diffusing its influence everywhere.

In union there is strength. In the ranks of discipline soldiers almost untrained through the war unorganized mass. The rain comes softly down in single, gentle drops, each drop alone powerless for good or harm, but those drops united water the parched land and clothe the world with verdure, flowers and fruits, and waving grain. So it is with the Knights of Pythias. The rain comes softly down in single, gentle drops, each drop alone powerless for good or harm, but those drops united water the parched land and clothe the world with verdure, flowers and fruits, and waving grain.

In disgust. And this is the way in which he brought it about.

A female book-peddler came to the office the other day; she wished to dispose of a book. She was alone in this world and had no one to whom she could turn for sympathy or assistance; hence we should buy her book. She was unmarried and had no many heart into which she could pour her sufferings; therefore we ought to invest in a book. She had received a liberal education, and we could not, in consequence, pay her less than $2 for a book. We had listened attentively and here broke in with:

"What do you say? We're deaf." She started in a loud voice and went through her rigmarole. When she had finished we went and got a roll of paper, and making it into a speaking-trumpet, placed one end to our ear and told her to proceed. She nearly broke a blood-vessel in her effort to make herself heard. She commenced:

"I am alone in the world—" "It doesn't make the slightest difference to us. We are a husband and a father. Bigamy is not allowed in this State. We are not eligible to proposals." "What a fool the man is!" she said in a low tone, then at the top of her voice, "I don't want to marry you; I want to sell a book—" "The last sentence was howled." "We don't want a book," we remarked, blandly; "our wife does the cooking, and she wouldn't allow a good looking woman as you to stay in the house five minutes. She is very jealous."

She looked at us in despair. Gathered her robes about her, giving us a glance of contempt, she exclaimed: "I do believe if a 300 pounder was let off alongside that deaf fool's head he'd think that somebody was knocking at the door." You should have heard her slam the door when she went out. We heard that.

VEGETINE. Vegetine Purifies the Blood and Gives Strength. Dr. QUINN, Ill., Jan. 21, 1877. Mr. H. R. STEVENS:—Dear Sir, Your "Vegetine" has been doing me good. I have been having the Chills and Fever, contracted in the swampy part of the South, and after using all the remedies I began the use of your Vegetine. It gave me immediate relief, to my system, purifying my blood, giving strength, whereas all other medicines weaker me, and filled my system with poison; and I am satisfied that it will be the same in the future. I have been using it for some time, and I feel that it is the best medicine I have ever used. It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood, and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention.

VEGETINE. Has Entirely Cured Me of Vertigo. Mr. H. R. STEVENS:—Cairo, Ill., Jan. 21, 1878. Dear Sir, I have used several bottles of "Vegetine," and it has entirely cured me of Vertigo. I have also used it for Kidney Complaint, and it is the best medicine for kidney complaint. I would recommend it as a good blood purifier.

VEGETINE. PAIN AND DISEASE. We can expect to enjoy good health when bad or corrupt humors circulate with the blood, causing pain and disease, and these humors, being deposited through the entire body, produce pimples, eruptions, ulcers, indigestion, costiveness, rheumatism, and numerous other complaints. Remove the cause by taking VEGETINE, the most reliable remedy for cleansing and purifying the blood.

VEGETINE. I Believe it to be a Good Medicine. Dear Sir, I wish to inform you that your "Vegetine" has done for me. I have been afflicted with Neuralgia, and after using three bottles of the "Vegetine" was entirely relieved. I also found my general health much improved. I believe it to be a good medicine. Yours truly, FRED HARVESTER.

VEGETINE. VEGETINE thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition. Dr. STEVENS:—Xenia, O., March 1, 1877. Dear Sir, I wish to inform you that your "Vegetine" has done for me. I have been afflicted with Neuralgia, and after using three bottles of the "Vegetine" was entirely relieved. I also found my general health much improved. I believe it to be a good medicine. Yours truly, FRED HARVESTER.

—Prof. Bischoff will give an organ concert at Whitewater Tuesday evening. Mrs. H. A. Smith will sing on the same occasion.

—The barber shop to be started in the store next to Conrad's is to be a branch of Wiggle's. He will remain at his old stand.

—Frank A. Lawrence and wife, left to-day for Kansas, where they will spend the winter, and will perhaps settle permanently.

—Mr. and Mrs. Helburn, parents of Mr. Fred Sonneborn, after a visit of ten months, left this morning for their home in New York city.

—There was an interesting missionary meeting last night at Court Street church at which several enthusiastic platform speeches were made.

—Hon. Charles H. Parker, of Beloit, the Greenback-Democratic candidate for Congress, was in the city to-day, and paid his respects to the Gazette.

—The First Methodist church have secured the right of keeping an eating-house on the Fair grounds, the proceeds to be devoted to the use of the society.

—Among the deaths at Memphis of yellow fever is reported that of Mayor Tom Foster, brother of Judge Foster. The deceased has numerous friends in this city.

—The uniforms of the Janesville Guards will not probably arrive in time for the parade next Thursday. They will shoulder their muskets and receive General Shields just the same though.

—Prof. J. H. Boyle and wife left to-day for Reedsburg in this State, to take charge of the Reedsburg public schools. Mrs. Boyle is the daughter of J. S. Bliss, and they were here on a visit.

—A horse belonging to A. D. Saubers, while hitched in front of the house Saturday afternoon, got tired of waiting, broke and ran, smashing the buggy badly. The horse also suffered some injuries.

—Isaac O'Clair, living just beyond Afton, while on route for his home, from this city, Friday night, was tipped out of his wagon and had a leg broken. The horse ran far enough to smash the wagon some.

—The churches have resumed. Rev. Mr. Chapell commenced work in earnest at the Baptist church yesterday, and Rev. Mr. Sawin, after a four weeks' vacation, set the ball rolling among the Congregationalists.

—At the Congregational church last evening the hat was passed around for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers, and $20.85 was collected thereby. It will be added to the citizens' fund. The total collection from all sources, including the amount given by the secret societies, will be about $700.

—A wagon-load of noisy Beloiters were driving furiously up and down the streets of Janesville yesterday afternoon. They broke down the wagon springs, but aside from that no serious damage was done, though there were some narrow escapes on the part of those who passed them on the road, one buggy having its wheel badly scratched.

—Mr. Louis Hunt has concluded to remove to Auburn, N. Y., where he will engage in the drug business, taking up the old business established by his father. Mr. Hunt offers his house for sale or rent, but will retain his interest in the Green Bay Hide and Leather Company. This removal of Mr. Hunt will be regretted by many in this city, as he has shown himself an active and honorable business man, and a public-spirited citizen, and such men no city can afford to lose. His many friends here, though regretting the change which he is to make, will give him their best well-wishes of success.

—Scheritsaw, the boss of the Farmer's Home, seems to be in bad luck. Saturday night about 12 o'clock he woke up thirsty, and stepped into the bar-room to get a glass of beer. He lighted the gas, and some young fellows on the street supposed that the light was in the window for them, and rattled away at the door demanding admission. Finally angered because they could not gain an entrance they smashed one of the windows and ran. Scheritsaw commenced yelling "fire, murder, burglars," etc., and succeeded in waking up most of the lodgers in the Myers house and for a time there was a wave of excitement.

FAIR FEATURES.

General Shields' Reception and Address—Other Arrangements for a Successful Exhibition.

This week the Rock County Agricultural Society holds its twelfth exhibition. The entries have already come in very encouragingly and are better than ever before. To-day there was little done beyond the receiving of entries and the perfecting of arrangements. The grounds are in better shape than for any previous exhibition, many permanent improvements having been made last year for the State Fair, and the grounds having been cleaned up and buildings thoroughly repaired this season. The officers of the Association seem to be greatly encouraged over the prospects, and somewhat surprised at the number of entries which are being made, as they exceed even their expectations.

To-morrow will be devoted to receiving entries, and arranging the display, so that by Wednesday morning everything will be in readiness for the crowds which are expected to pour through the gates.

GEN. SHIELDS' RECEPTION AND ADDRESS. The address by Gen. Shields will, of course, be one of the most attractive features of the programme. As a soldier, and a hero his record is found in the annals of the Mexican war, as well as in the late war, and his military reputation is one which calls forth the greatest admiration. He is no less great as an orator, and wherever he has spoken he has been listened to by vast crowds.

The Society may well be congratulated on having secured his presence here. He will arrive by the Northwestern railroad on the noon train Thursday, and will be met at the depot by the officers of the Society, and a procession will be formed to escort him to the Fair grounds. The procession will consist of the Bower City Band, Janesville Guards, Janesville Veterans, Catholic Temperance Band, Catholic Total Abstinence and Benevolent Society, and by numerous veterans of the Mexican war, together with such citizens as may choose to fall into line. It is to be hoped that all citizens who can will thus unite in paying due honor to this distinguished man. It is expected that many of the veterans from adjoining counties will also be present, as many of them have been personally connected with General Shields in the actual scenes of war. His reception will doubtless be an enthusiastic one, and his address will without doubt meet the high expectations of all, as he has already won a high rank as an orator.

ON THE TRACK.

The trotting at the Fair this year promises to be unusually good. On Thursday there will be the trot for the 2:35 class, the purse being $300, and also for the 3:00 class, with a purse of $75. The following day there will be a free-for-all, with a purse of $300, and a trot for the 2:50 class, for $150. Numerous entries are being made of fast-flyers, and there is every reason to believe that this feature of the Fair will be better than for years past. There are a number of speedy trotters stabled on the grounds, and others will join them, making plenty of sport for those who delight in the turf.

THE PLACE TO BUY DRY GOODS.

The firm of Smith & Bestwick is offering inducements to persons in need of dry goods which are rare and remarkably attractive. The New York cash store was never in a better condition to offer excellent bargains than it is to-day. It has gone through many a contest for good goods and low prices, but this season it is incomparable. It is not only filled with an immense stock of all classes and goods, but it contains a special line of black and colored cashmeres, and the Jamestown alpaca, at popular prices. The firm has the agency of Broadhead & Sons, and have an assortment of their line of goods which in quality and price cannot be excelled in the city. The well known enterprise of the firm of Smith & Bestwick always puts them in the front rank of dry goods dealers, and it is the policy of the firm, and one which they put into practice, to supply the best goods of all descriptions at the lowest prices. See their new advertisement.

JENNIE HIGHT.

This will be a week of enjoyment for the theatre-goers. Jennie Hight, supported by a strong company, will appear at the Opera House four evenings commencing to-morrow night. She has long been a favorite before the footlights, being vivacious and sprightly, and having a rich repertoire, which has been increased by four new pieces written especially for her. For years in Chicago Jennie Hight stood as the favorite, and she has improved steadily until now. Those who want a real treat should not miss these opportunities. There is a nightly change of programme, and the pieces placed upon the boards are of the choicest and best. There will probably be no bare benches. The Company arrived this afternoon and are at the Myer's house.

A QUEER DOG.

A black and tan, belonging to Dr. S. N. Smith, recently gave birth to five puppies, four of which were taken away from her, leaving her only one to take care of. A few days afterwards it was noticed that she had in her kennel a little white rabbit which she had evidently adopted, and a day or two later a black rabbit was found in the kennel. The mother has taken both little rabbits under her charge, and is paying just as much attention to them as to the puppy which has been left her. She allows no one to touch either the puppy or the rabbits, and protects them all alike, her attachment seeming as strong toward the adopted ones as toward that of her own blood.

BUILDING AN ARMORY.

A plan is being talked up of building an armory for the use of the Veterans and Guards. Such a building could be erected at a small expense, and the rental would pay it is thought a fair return to the parties furnishing the means. One building would answer the demands of both companies, and it is not improbable that the plan will be carried into practical effect.

THE DIAMOND FIELD.

The League Contest—Defeat of the Chicago and Milwaukee Clubs. The league contest has changed but little during the present week. The following shows the relative positions of the clubs, by the number of games won by each: Boston, 37; Cincinnati, 31; Chicago, 23; Providence, 25; Indianapolis, 22; Milwaukee 13. On Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday of this week, the Providence club play in Chicago, the Boston in Cincinnati, and the Milwaukee at Indianapolis. The following week will finish the work among the western clubs and will leave only four games between Boston and Providence.

There was no game at Cincinnati Saturday on account of rain.

The Boston defeated the Chicago Saturday 5 to 2.

The Indianapolis defeated the Milwaukee Saturday 9 to 0.

A BAD BOY.

About two weeks ago an 11 year old boy came to Frank London's asking for work. He was given employment, was fed and clothed, and seemed contented until the clothes struck the town. He went forth to see the show, and has not yet come back. Strange to say about $8 in cash disappeared at the same time from a bureau drawer, and that has not returned either. It is supposed that the boy took the money off, and the money took the boy off. He will probably be brought back to Janesville to answer to the charge.
